

SASH RESEARCH DAY

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

Monday 13 March 2017

The Wild Fig, 1 Liesbeek Ave, Observatory, Cape Town

08h30 to 15h30

www.sashprogramme.org

SESSION 1: WELCOME
8.30 – 9.00 AM	Welcome and tea
SESSION 2: HUMAN RIGHTS AND HEALTH
9.10 – 9.30 AM	Presentation from Hanne Haricharan Possibilities and limitations for participation in the 'invited space'. An analysis of the Western Cape policy on Health Committees
9.30 – 9.50 AM	Presentation from Samantha Malunga Men in crisis and 'resuscitated' masculinities: Using 'alternative' masculinities to link men to (HIV) care in Klipfontein
SESSION 3: CHILD DISCLOSURE AND HIV
9.50 – 10.10 AM	Presentation from Tebogo Mokganyetji Social barriers of caregiver led child disclosure: A review of the literature
10.10 – 10.30 AM	Presentation from Namhla Sicwebu Global health policy transformation and translation: A process evaluation of a new decentralised model of pediatric HIV disclosure
10.30 – 11 AM	Tea Break
SESSION 4: KEY POPULATIONS AND HIV
11 – 11.20 AM	Presentation from Lario Viljoen Social narratives of sex, intimacy and love in the context of universal testing and treatment of HIV/AIDS: Ethnographic methods
11.20 – 11.40 AM	Presentation from Brian Kanyemba: Predictors of adherence among MSM in South Africa PrEP studies: a quantitative analysis on projections on adherence to PrEP among MSM in an RCT and demonstration study in Cape Town
11.40 – 12.00 PM	Presentation from Lesley Gittings Young masculinities: a study of HIV-positive adolescent boys' engagement with traditional and biomedical health services

12 – 13.10 PM	LUNCH
SESSION 4 (cont): KEY POPULATIONS AND HIV
13.10 – 13.30 PM	Presentation from O'Brian Nyamucherera Male Circumcision for HIV prevention: the new meanings of manhood and masculinity from Zimbabwe
13.30 – 13.50 PM	Presentation from Alice Clarfelt Using Theatre of the Oppressed to explore gender identity construction amongst youth peer educators
13.50 – 14.10 PM	Tea break
SESSION 5 KEYNOTE SPEAKERS
14.10 – 15.10 PM	Rebecca Hodes and Rob Morrell South African Social Science in the Global HIV/AIDS Knowledge Domain
SESSION 6: CLOSING REMARKS
15.10 – 15.30 PM	Carla Tsampiras Closing remarks